

United States District
Court of Massachusetts

U.S., Plaintiff

V.

CR. NO. 08-10071-RGS

Wurie, defendant

---

FILED
IN CLERK'S OFFICE
2013 JUL 31 P 12:39
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASS.

Motion for release pursuant to 18 U.S.C Section 3142(a)(1)

---

I, Brima Wurie, hereby move in this court for release

Date:

7/22/13

Release on personal recognizance, or alternative, an unsecured bond

---

On May 17, 2013 the first circuit of appeals vacated my conviction. The first circuit stated that all the evidence in my case have been suppressed. U.S. V. Wurie, 2013 U.S. app. Lexis 9937

According to title 18 U.S.C section 3142(a)(1), the court "shall" (must) order my release. See United States V. Dinunzio 2008 U.S. Dist. Lexis 119271. A reversal by an En banc court or supreme court is unlikely, even if sought by government.

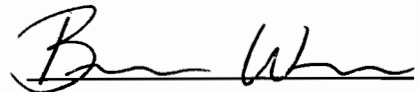

September of 2002, was the last and most recent violent charge I had which I also bailed out for, and appeared at all my hearings for that case.

I have a 6 year old daughter whom I've only held in my arms for the first six months of her life.

Conclusion

I humbly ask this court to be released because I am not a federal felon, nor a flight risk or a danger to my community. Most importantly, I am not facing any charges.

Respectfully,
